STRATEGY

Buying and selling in Alcona

If you're buying

Innisfil buyers range from first-time buyers priced out of Bradford and Newmarket to waterfront and recreational purchasers. Kaitlynn checks shoreline rights, seasonal versus year-round road access, well and septic condition and winter commute realities before you write an offer.

If you're selling

Waterfront and near-water properties in Innisfil are sold to a wide geographic buyer pool, so photography, video and digital targeting matter as much as local exposure. Kaitlynn also times launches around the recreational buying season when it benefits the seller.
